

THE INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT LAW ORGANIZATION AND PARTNERS at COP12

Pyeongchang, Republic of Korea

EXPERTS' RETREAT ON PROMOTING LAWS FOR BIODIVERSITY

Saturday, 11 October 2014

12:00 - 18:00

Korean Traditional Food Culture Experience Centre, Gangwon Province

This invitation only Experts' Retreat will bring together select representatives from CBD Parties, UN specialized agencies and other relevant organizations, as well as eminent legal experts for focused discussions to review progress made to date and define priorities to effectively assist CBD Parties to use law to implement the Strategic Plan for Biodiversity and its Aichi Targets. More information available here.

BUILDING LEGAL FRAMEWORKS TO IMPLEMENT THE NAGOYA PROTOCOL

COP 12 Side Event,
Monday, 13 October 2014, 13:15 - 14:45
Hall F, Room 3

Building Nagoya Protocol-compliant legal frameworks is a key step in national implementation. IDLO and the ABS Capacity Development Initiative invite COP 12 delegates to learn about a new program that is building up the knowledge, capacity and global networks of national lawyers to advise their own governments to implement the Nagoya Protocol.

More information available here.

PROMOTING LAWS FOR BIODIVERSITY

COP 12 Side Event
Thursday, 16 October 2014, 13:15 - 14:45
Hall G, Room 2

How can legal and rule of law approaches support the implementation of the CBD Strategic Plan 2011-2020 and Aichi Biodiversity Targets? This event will feature the latest findings of the IDLO-SCBD Legal Preparedness Initiative on Achieving the Aichi Biodiversity Targets, focusing on the most promising legal tools and experiences with using law to support biodiversity values. This event will share and invite input on the outcomes of the Experts' Retreat to the broad CBD community.

More information available here.

Convention on Biological Diversity

Schweizerische Eidgenossenschaft
Confédération suisse
Confederazione Svizzera
Confederaziun svizra

Federal Office for the Environment FOEN

